

HAMPTON, PHOEBUS AND OLD POINT.

TO BE LIVELY RACE

Four-Cornered Fight For the Legislature.

TWO MORE CANDIDATES OUT

Rumor Has It That Messrs. W. W. Woodward and Isaac Wheeler Aspire to Represent Elizabeth City County in House of Delegates.

According to a rumor in circulation yesterday the coming contest for the legislature in Elizabeth City county will probably be a four-cornered race. Several days ago Mr. Harry R. Houston, the editor of the Hampton Monitor, announced that he is a candidate for the House, and Mr. Charles Lockie Collier, the present representative, has been thinking of making the race again.

Now it is said that Mr. W. W. Woodward, the well known attorney, has the matter of running for the legislature under consideration, and Mr. Isaac Wheeler, a member of the Hampton Carpenters' and Joiners' Union, is another probable candidate.

Mr. Woodward is out of town and could not be seen last evening in connection with the rumor. Mr. Woodward is one of the strongest members of the Hampton bar and should in offer for the House his friends say he will make a formidable foe to the other aspirants.

When seen by the representative of the Daily Press last night, Mr. Wheeler said that he has not fully made up his mind as to whether he will be a candidate in the coming primary or not. Mr. Wheeler is identified with the labor interests of the county and it is claimed that should he offer for the honor he will receive the support of the labor contingent of voters. Mr. Wheeler has been a Democrat all his life and his friends say, capable of making a good representative in the lower branch of the legislature.

With Messrs. Houston, Collier, Woodward and Wheeler in the fight the contest for the legislature would make the primary one of the liveliest political battles Elizabeth City county has had in several years.

As is well known the member of the House from this section is also a delegate from Accomac county, but generally the nomination is made in Elizabeth City county and the action of the local Democrats is always confirmed by the Accomac convention.

BASKETBALL TONIGHT.

Newport News Eagles Will Meet the Strong Y. M. C. A. Team.

Much interest centers in the basketball game between the Newport News Eagles and the Hampton Young Men's Christian Association this evening in Armory hall. The Eagles defeated the Hamptonians in an exciting contest last Thursday night and the battle this evening will probably be more exciting.

Saturday afternoon on the campus.

REV. B. P. LEE AGAIN HONORED.

Sons of Revolution Invite Him to Deliver Silver Piece.

The Lexington (Ky.) Herald prints the following, which is of interest to many Hamptonians:

"The Kentucky Society of Sons of the Revolution are rejoicing that their beloved chaplain has been again honored by being made prominent on the program of the triennial meeting of the national society. The following letter is self-explanatory:

"Rev. Dean Baker P. Lee, D. D. Christ Church Cathedral, Lexington, Kentucky.

"My Dear Sir:—The United States Naval Academy at Annapolis have tendered the General Society Sons of the Revolution an exhibition drill to be held at the grounds of the academy on the evening of Wednesday, April 19, 1905.

"In consideration of this courtesy, the General Society propose to present the midshipmen with an appropriate gift in the shape of a silver piece, and it is earnestly hoped by those having the matter in charge that you will consent to make the presentation of this piece of silver.

"Very faithfully yours,
"J. M. MONTGOMERY,
"General Secretary."

"The delegates of the Sons of the Revolution will be the guests of Governor and Mrs. Warfield while at Annapolis. This society is composed of the descendants of Revolutionary soldiers and is one of the most influential societies in America. As stated heretofore their triennial meeting will be held in Washington, D. C. April 18 and 19.

"Governor Carroll, the president general, will preside at all the meetings. President Roosevelt, judges of the Supreme Court, governors and bishops will be among the prominent members present. The first day President Roosevelt will receive the delegates at the White House. The next day a special train will convey the delegates to Annapolis. The day following they will take a steamer to Mt. Vernon accompanied by the United States Marine Band. In the banquet room of Washington's old home will be held a solemn service, followed by an election of officers. A banquet will be given at night at the New Willard hotel, Washington, D. C. Besides Dean Lee, who is a special delegate from the Kentucky Society, there will attend as delegates John T. Shelby, Desha Breckinridge, Wilbur R. Smith, W. W. Estlin and Samuel Wilson.

"Dean Lee will accept the proffered honor."

"Dean Lee will arrive in Hampton Monday night and will spend a short time with his mother.

It is expected that Mr. Arthur Lee will accompany Dean Lee from Hampton to Washington.
